TRAINING MANUALS - LOCATION

The Training Manuals that have been written and developed by the Business Intelligence Systems and Analytics (BISA) (formerly Business Intelligence & Technology (BIT) Group) of the Aspen Parks & Recreation Department are protected by copyright and designed for dissemination during an employee training. For this reason, they are not made publicly available here, rather they are located on a link of the same name, located on the internal city network app called City Source. To access, please login to the city network (requires secure credentials), navigate to the City Source app/page, then click on the Aspen Parks & Rec navigation on the lower left side of the home page. Thank you.
